

My World: A snapshot of citizens' priorities for the new development agenda

A focus on access to clean water and sanitation and affordable and nutritious food

Remarks André Aranha Corrêa do Lago; Director General, Department of the Environment and Special Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Brazil, and former chief negotiator for Rio +20

Special Presentation Emmanuel Oguntuyi; Senior Counsellor, Permanent Mission of Nigeria

Moderator Corinne Woods; Director UN Millennium Campaign

Panelist Paul Ladd; One UN Secretariat

Panelist Serin Falu Njie, Deputy Director, Policy; UN Millennium Campaign

MY World is a global survey that asks citizens what issues would make the most difference to their lives.

Currently over 575,000 individuals from 194 countries have expressed their priorities through MY World.

You can see live results segmented by region, country, age group, gender and HDI at results.myworld2015.org